

PRESS RELEASE

DANCE:FILM 07 the inaugural Dance Film Festival in Scotland will take place from Monday 29th October to Sunday 4th November 2007.

DANCE:FILM 07 will be a celebration of dance and film in a week of feature films, short films and events brought to you by Dance Base, Scotland's National Centre for Dance and Filmhouse, Scotland's leading independent cinema, and supported by Scottish Screen.

For the first time in Scotland, a National Dance Agency and an Independent Cinema have come together to take you on a journey to discover the many facets of dance in film.

There are many types of "Dance Films" and the Festival will show a shining example of each of them. From the Hollywood musical, to documentary, cinematic interpretation of a live dance work to mainstream classic or the critically acclaimed the season will have something to please all audiences.

There will be a feature film every evening in the wonderful Cinema One in the Filmhouse. The screenings kick off with the classic Gene Kelly and Frank Sinatra musical "On The Town" and end with the unstoppable cult mainstream classic "Dirty Dancing". And at the end of the week the public can try out the dances for themselves in a series of workshops and events in the beautiful studios at Dance Base.

As part of DANCE:FILM 07, there will also be a screening of two programmes of dance film shorts showcasing the hottest short filmmaking talent from Scotland and around the globe. The full schedule of films and workshops will be revealed middle of September.
